Eagles Begin Workouts Monday

VOL. 69 NO. 19 THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1964 CANYON, TEXAS 14 PAGES 1 SECTION 10 CENTS

Public Hearing Set On Randall County Budget

Hobart McDonald the new principal at Canyon High School and Lynda Hughes, a senior, look over just a few of the 934 new books the school has for the coming year. But, neither of them are really looking forward to numbering each of the books so that they can be checked out to the students.

Canyon Eagles Face Tough Year In 1-AAA

Experience plus size will be the formula for the 1964 Canyon Eagles football season as they enter 1-AAA competition.

The Eagles, coached by Jeep Webb, begin fall workouts Monday with eight returning letterman and 25 sophomores, juniors and seniors trying for the varsity team.

"We have more experience this year than we have ever had," Webb explained.

But the Eagles lost six men from the last year's starting lineup, and the squad faces tougher competition for the fall.

However, the average weight of the starting lineup for this fall is above last year's starting lineup weighins.

The average weight of the backfield for this fall will be 163 pounds. The average weight for the line will be 194 pounds, according to Webb.

Last year the backfield weighed an average of 157 pounds. The line was 176 pounds.

The Eagles were moved from 2-AA listing to 1-AAA rating this fall because of the increase in the size of the school.

Muleshoe and Tulia, who were also in AA competition last year, moved into 1-AAA spotlight also.

Canyon will face one of the hardest tussles of the season Oct. 30 when they meet the Dumas Demons in Dumas.

Demons have been picked by the coaches in the district as the number one team. They had an 11 to 1 record in 1963 and have 13 returning lettermen to the squad.

Of the 13 lettermen, three are returning offensive starters and two are returning defensive starters.

Canyon has four returning offensive starters and four returning defensive starters. Canyon's '63 record was 4-6.

Canyon was picked as fifth in the district by the coaches.

Dumas had two boys named as all-state candidates.

Canyon's Wayne Colling, 189 pound senior, was named as an all-state candidate from here.

Canyon will also meet Tulia, picked as fourth in the district. Tulia won the district title last year in 2-AA District.

Muleshoe, another school which was added to the 1-AAA listing, was also district champ last year.

Other teams in the district this year are Perryton and Hereford. Both teams had 4-6 records in '63. Perryton has 13 returning lettermen and Hereford has 12 lettermen returning.

"We will have about 35 boys out next week for fall football practice. Most of them will be juniors and seniors, but we will have a few sophomores," Webb observed.

Tryouts will begin at 7 a.m. Monday and end at 8:30 a.m. Evening practices begin at 6:30 p.m. and run until 8:30. Practices will be held Monday through Saturday, Aug. 17-28.

Two scrimmages are scheduled for the two week's of practices. Canyon will meet Morton in one scrimmage. The second scrimmage has not been set.

Webb listed depth, size and speed as the main weak points for the squad, but was optomistic about the coming season.

"We feel pretty good about this season. We want to think the attitude among the kids is pretty good. And attitude means a lot in football," Webb continued.

"We lost our defensive starters from last year's boys, so we will be hurt there. We will be weakest in the backfield. Our strongest area is in the defense and offense on the line," Webb explained.

"Tom Lair will play quarterback and he only played in two games last year. He hurt his leg, so actually he has no experience.

"We feel Wayne Brewer and Dennis Haley will be good backs for us. Both the boys are juniors, and they did good jobs

Hales Heads LL Baseball

Richmond Hales was elected president of the Little League association at a meeting of interested persons Tuesday.

Hales, 37, is a farmer and registered Angus Cattle breeder. He will succeed Bill Lee, president last year.

Russell Altmiller was named treasurer and Roy Forehand will serve as player agent.

Hales was born in Randall County, and was graduated from West Texas High School in Canyon in 1946.

He has one son, Ricky, who will play in Little League competition.

Little League association finances were discussed at the annual summer meeting. Other plans for the fall and next summer were discussed, but no definite steps were taken, according to Lee.

Consumers Office Hit By Burglars

Burglars took an estimated $102 worth of loot Monday night in a break-in at Consumers Fuel & Elevator Association.

Entry was gained by smashing a glass pane in the front door of the firm's office building.

The soft drink vending machine was jimmied and about $4.00 in change taken. Some cigarettes were taken from beneath the office counter. Most valuable part of the loot was a set of socket wrenches.

Officers discovered the burglary about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning while on routine patrol.

ASC Committee Balloting Set

Slates of nominees for membership on ASCS community committees are now being compiled at the Randall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office in Canyon.

Jack Frost, chairman of the county committee, said an effort is being made to secure participation of eligible voters in the committee elections.

Frost said farmers eligible to vote in the committee elections also have the right to nominate candidates.

Nominating petitions must be signed by six or more eligible to vote in the elections. Deadline for filing is Aug. 19.

Additional nominations may be made by the incumbent ASCS community and county committees if these are required or deemed desirable.

Frost said it is important for the best men available to serve on ASCS committees. He pointed out that the ASCS has considerable impact on the welfare of the county as a whole and upon the county's agriculture in particular.

He noted that last year 24,419.3 acres of county farm land were improved under the Agricultural Conservation Program cost-sharing arrangment.

He said this cost $195,000 with about half coming from the participating farmers and the balance from ACP.

He said price support payments in the county last year came to $975,652 and price-support loans to $2,178,923.36. Included in the price-support in this county are such major program commodities as wheat and grain sorghum.

Frost said a farmer eligible to vote in the committee elections is generally a farmer who is taking part in or is eligible to take part in one or more of the national farm programs which the ASC committee helps to administer.

A person eligible to hold office as a committeeman--among other qualifications--is a local resident who is eligible to vote in the election.

Further information on these and other qualifications may be obtained at the county ASCS office in Canyon.

Election of community committees will be held Aug. 19 through Sept. 11.

Each community will choose three community committeemen and two alternates. The chairman, vice-chairman and

Students who have moved to the Canyon school district since May, 1964, should report between Aug. 1-15 to the principal's office in the building in which he is to attend.

At this time he will be given a conference with the principal to work out details on enrollment and schedules for the coming year.

Band rehearsals will begin Monday Aug. 17 from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.

Football tryouts will also begin August 17 and continue through August 28. The tryouts will be held from 7 to 8:30 a.m. and from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Mondy through Saturday for the two week period.

Regular classes for Canyon Public School students will begin August 31 at 8:35 a.m.

Road Sign Replacement Growing Job In Area

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

A shattering glass, a hammer hitting metal or the sound of a spray paint bottle breaks a night's silence.

The sounds, although not often heard, are made each weekend in and around Canyon.

As a result, Mondays prove to be busy days for the men at the Texas Highway Department.

A metal highway sign may need replacing, a wooden sign will have to be taken up and another put in its place, a large highway marker will have to be sent to the department's paint shop in Amarillo to be repainted or reshaped for use.

Or one of the 19 men at the local department office may have to put up a sign, where only yesterday another stood.

The problem of vandalism to state, county, and city road signs is a growing concern and job to local officials.

Al Morgan, highway maintenance foreman of Canyon, said more and more signs are being damaged, stolen or completely ruined each week.

"Some weeks we will not have very many, but then some week ends, we will have a lot of them," Morgan explained.

"Last week we got a whole truck load of signs from Tulia which had been stolen from Randall County recently. The Tulia Highway Department brought us the signs, which had been found in Swisher County," he exclaimed.

The problem of stolen or damaged signs seems to be increasing.

Students non-students children, adults. No one seems to know what age group spends weekend nights canvassing the town for signs which can be the target of beer bottles, paint brushes or hammers.

As many as five to 20 signs are counted as missing, pulled up or broken each week. Each sign must be replaced and repaired.

And costs for the damage skyrockets.

Signs in an average week will cost between $25 to $50. This includes labor, equipment, time and signs.

Metal highway signs generally are 24 x 24 or 30 x 30 inches. These signs will run from $5 to $8 a piece, according to Morgan.

"Most of the damage to the metal signs is in changing the numbers with paint. Or people will try to bend them or take them down from the poles.

"The wooden signs are damaged heavily when bottles are thrown at them. Often a rock or bottle will go through the wooden signs.

"We can fix a metal sign that has been damaged. We repaint them.

"But most of the wooden signs are completely destroyed. The wood signs cost about $4 to $5 each," Morgan declared.

Guard posts along the highway must be replaced regularly, but Morgan said most damage to the guard posts is accidental.

"The guard posts are broken accidently. And when they are broken, we just replace them. We generally do not try to repair them," he explained.

Morgan shook his head when another point of concern was

Budget Aired Tuesday

Public hearing on the Canyon school budget of $957,000 will be held at 8 o'clock next Tuesday night at Canyon High School.

The hearing will precede a regular meeting of the school board.

The preliminary budget will probably be adopted at the ensuing business session of the board.

Kids Inc. Begin Play August 17

Kids, 8 to 13 years, will hit the football field Monday evening at the first fall meeting of Kids Incorporated.

Parents, children and interested coaches will meet at 5 p.m. Monday at Connor Park to organize teams for this fall.

C. M. Winn will coach the midget team, which is made up of 8 and 9 year old boys.

Virgil Belcher will coach the pee wee league team. Boys interested in the pee wee team must be 10 or 11 years old.

A coach for the junior team has not been named. Don Kievit, organization head, said more coaches are needed for each league.

Junior team will be made up of boys 12 and 13 years old. These boys must not be playing on a junior high football team.

Persons not making the Monday evening meeting should meet at the park any afternoon next week.

Practices will be conducted each afternoon beginning at 4:30 to 5:45. Workouts will be held Monday through Friday beginning Aug. 17.

Uniforms will be issued during the week of Aug. 24, according to Kievit.

Teams will play on Saturdays and Sundays in Canyon and Amarillo.

"We will have only one team in each classification," Kievit pointed out.

No Action Taken On Two Petitions

Randall County's proposed budget for 1965 provides an increase of about $10,000 in salaries for county officials and employees.

County Auditor E. T. Cummings submitted the proposed budget of $819,277.50 to commissioners court Monday. Public hearing on the budget has been scheduled for 2 o'clock the afternoon of Aug. 24 in commissioners courtroom at the courthouse.

The county's ammended budget for 1964 comes to $809,077.75. Actual budget for 1963 was $802,790.71.

The increase of the proposed budget is about $10,000 over the ammended 1964 budget. Projected salary load accounts for most of the budget increase.

Cummings explained that the $10,000 increase might be used either for additional employees, for pay increase for current employees or both.

The auditor said the county will have about $111,000 on hand by the end of 1964. He said this is expected to dwindle to $88,554 by the end of 1965.

"This is what I figured would be a normal increase," Cummings declared in commenting on the salary provisions in the budget.

Cummings said normal ad valorem tax collections should bring in about $365,980 in 1964 taxes for the 1965 budget. Fines, license plates, special taxes and other sources of revenue should bring the total of revenue to $796,221.37.

The court delayed until next Monday action on two petitions received regarding the voting place in voting precinct 16.

At this week's meeting of the court, Mrs. G. A. Costley presented a petition asking, in effect, that precinct 16 be eliminated and that voters in that precinct vote in precinct 20.

Mrs. Costley said the petition was signed by 140 persons.

Last week a petition was presented to the court asking that precinct 16 remain unchanged. Present voting place for precinct 16 is VFW Hall.

The court voted to participate in the amount of $17.50 in the purchase of a table for the county library. Canyon city commission Monday night agreed to participate in a like amount.

Commissioners also authorized the sheriff's department to advertise for bids on a new car.

PTA Executive Board To Meet

The PTA executive board will meet Friday night at the home of Bill Davis, president.

The session will begin at 8:15 p.m. At the meeting, plans will be made concerning projects and policies of the PTA during the coming school year.

All members of the PTA executive committee are requested to attend.

City Dads Wait On Sewer Bids

City Commissioners heard a report from city manager Dewey Bryant Monday that two of the city's water wells are not in operation.

"Well number six went out and the water table in well number four has dropped out of operation," Bryant explained.

Bryant continued by saying well six should not be out more than this week, and he thought the water table may rise again so number four will operate soon.

Bryant also pointed out the water table is low on two more city wells.

Commissioners opened bids on furnishing and installing spray bars on the sewerage treatment plant, but the bid was not awarded.

The low bid of $11,453 was approximately twice as much as the amount budgeted in the city's yearly budget.

Bryant told commissioners $5000 had been the budgeted figure set for the item in this year's budget. He said there was not enough money in that item budget to purchase the necessary rotary distributor.

Commissioners decided to

SPEED LIMIT 30

Larry Berry, left, and Roy Franklin heave a new highway sign onto a post after removing a damaged sign. The original sign had been painted to read 80 miles an hour instead of 30. Al Morgan, maintenance foreman of the Canyon Highway Department, said approximately a half dozen signs are damaged each week in and around Canyon.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

If any one person could be singled out and credited with the success of the 75th Anniversary celebration here, that person would be Joe Gidden.

Joe has been spending half or more of his time on anniversary business for more than two months.

Joe saw to most of the arrangments for the festivities. He had some good lieutenants but the responsibility was his and he discharged it well.

When wood was cut for the barbecue, Joe was there. He was there a lot of the time while the meat was being cooked.

He handled a thousand details behind the scene. When the fun and frolic was over, he was back on the job the following Monday morning cleaning up after merrymakers.

We join his fellow townsmen in saying, "Thanks, Joe."

The Junior Chamber of Commerce played a key role in the celebration. The things that group and the Jaycee-ettes did are too numerous to list.

They cooked the meat, put out flags, sponsored a beard growing contest and worked in the barbecue serving line. These are just a few.

For the next week we'll be in New Mexico and Colorado. We plan to shy away from newscasts and newspapers and let the world go by.

A week from next Monday there will be a public hearing on Randall County's proposed budget for 1965.

The budget is a blueprint for spending about a million dollars of Randall County tax money.

How many people will be there for the hearing, other than members of commissioners court and newspaper representatives?

If a single person attends simply for the sake of hearing the budget, it will be something new here. Not a person showed up last year nor was anyone present the year before.

We cry about the evils of big government in Washington. Many of the local perogatives we have lost to federal power have been abandoned rather than seized.

Interest in the functions of local government would do a lot to improve state and federal government. Apathy at home will assure wheeling and dealing in Austin and Washington.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT, Huelyn Laycock, heads the administrative staff for Canyon Public Schools and supervises the work of some 95 teachers. At the close of the 1964 spring term, Laycock reported an enrollment of 1,972 students in the school system.

Jaycee-Ettes Set Barbecue

Plans for a fundraising barbecue were made at the Happy Jaycee-ette meeting last Thursday evening.

The barbecue will be held at the Jaycee concession stand south of the city on Highway 87, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Barbecue plates, consisting of barbecue, potato salad, and beans, will be on sale for $1.00. Barbecue on a bun will sell for $.50. It was also planned to sell homemade pies at the stand.

Refreshments were served to 15 members by Lorna Smith and La Venna Jackson. Jaycee-ettes present for the meeting were Martha Payne, Della Venhaus, Mary Henry, Nell Sims, Betty Penn, Jimmie Middleton, Judy Shipman, Neta Todd, Mary Stubblefield, Wauyane Cope, Joy Freeman, and Betty Donnell.

Plans were also made for the next Happy Jaycee-ette meeting to be held on September 8 in the school cafeteria.

WT Training Clinic Now In Progress

About 30 persons are expected to attend the training clinic which begins today, Thursday, at West Texas State University.

Attending the first annual clinic will be Panhandle area and Oklahoma high school trainers and coaches.

Registration opened Wednesday. Sessions begin today and continue through Saturday.

All sessions are scheduled in the Blue Room of the Student Union Building.

Harry Tyson, head football trainer at WTSU, is the clinic director.

Slated as guest speaker is Dr. Charles Ratcliff of Lubbock, Orthopedic Surgeon.

Dr. Ratcliff is known throughout the southwest as one of the top members of his field.

His lectures are on knee injuries and their relationships to athletics.

Other sessions will feature the topic of prevention as well as treatment of injuries.

Included in the sessions will be demonstrations of taping, wrapping, and other forms of treatment for injuries.

Those attending the clinic are being housed on the WT campus. Arrangements were also made to feed and provide recreation and swimming for the persons attending.

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

That magic feeling of fall air and football talk is about to fly into Canyon again.

Coaches, being the pessimists they are, are searching for the worst things they can say about their teams and still have a small way out if they win a game.

Willie McAlpine, head football coach at Muleshoe High School (one of the teams Canyon will face in 1-AAA competition this fall), had one good thing to say about his team this fall.

McAlpine was asked, after reeling off a list of bad points for his team, if there wasn't something good about the prospects for the coming season.

He supposedly scratched his head and slowly said, "Well, yes, there is one good thing. We have new uniforms this fall."

Made a bold decision this week and voted myself into going to the Democratic National Convention.

After the frantic struggle for room reservations and plane reservations, I stopped to consider just what I was getting myself into.

A week in Atlantic City, New Jersey, by myself?

Then rationalization set in. With a national convention going on in a city, you can say a lot of things, but you can not say you will be by yourself.

So with that fear squashed, I turned my head to others.

It is going to be an exciting week, running around seeing politicians and would-be politicians making some small decisions.

But one must realize the major policy making will be made long before the convention is called to order Aug. 24.

However, the meeting of national figures and the viewing of the execution of the plans already decided upon will be one of the greatest experiences possible.

Needless to say, I'm looking forward to the entire adventure with the wide-eye enthusiasm of a girl going out on her first date.

WAM Moore is almost re-living history this week when he appears in "The Merry Wives of Windsor" being presented in the Branding Iron Theatre at WT.

WAM, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moore of Canyon, played the part of a page in the same production 10 years ago at Yale University.

This year he is playing a leading role in the show which will go on stage Friday and Saturday nights.

Playing the page will be Miles Raillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Raillard.

WAM played Little Robin, the page to Sir John Falstaff in the play, when he was eight years old. The play received high recognition from newspapers and critics in the East at that time.

It may seem like 10 years ago to WAM, but to his parents it probably seems more like 10 months.

I do congratulate the Moores, parents and son, for the work they have done at WT and the high school. They have been a great asset to the drama departments of both institutions.

Final Rites Are Given Mr. Hale

Frank Hale of Spur died last Sunday in Spur.

Mr. Hale, 89, was the grandfather of Mrs. Thomas W. Smith of Canyon. Interment was in a Spur cemetery.

Survivors, besides Mrs. Smith, include four brothers and sisters, 10 children, 62 grandchildren, and 65 great-grandchildren.

Workshop Reunion Saturday

A high school speech workshop reunion will be held Saturday, Aug. 15 in the Branding Iron Theater at West Texas State University.

Members of the 1964 workshop are hosts for the day long activities.

Dr. Crannell Tolliver will be in charge of the reunion.

Gene Lewis will present plans for the debate workshop to be held in early fall.

Erin Wertenberger will present plans for the Buffalo Masquer Theatre workshop also scheduled for early fall.

Photographs of "Around the World in 80 Days" will be shown to the guests.

All past members of the summer workshops are invited to attend the reunion.

Texas Reading Club Schedules Program

An awards program on August 29 will end the Children's Reading Project in Canyon for the summer.

The program will be held at the Olympic Theatre through the courtesy of Charles Donnel, owner and operator of the Canyon Theatres.

Mrs. Cristler Crain, county representative to the city-county library board, will be mistress of ceremonies. Club members will be presented by Mrs. Chester Pierle, librarian of the city-county library, and County Judge Wayland Angel will award the certificates.

A child must have been enrolled in the program and have read 12 or more books to be eligible to receive a certificate.

In addition to the presentation ceremony, several films provided by Mrs. Joseph Findley will be shown.

Mrs. Johnny Raymond, coordinator for the summer program stated that all children enrolled in the program before July 30 may attend and will be permitted to bring one guest. Approximately 260 children and guests are expected.

Board members of Canyon Friends of the Library, under the leadership of Roy Fortune, will provide refreshments for those attending.

The project is co-sponsored by Texas State Library Association and has been statewide for many years. Randall County Library is participating for the first time this year.

Dunn Speaks At Conference

James Dunn, director of Baptist student work, West Texas State University, is scheduled to be on the program of a student conference at Glorieta (N.M.) Baptist Assembly Aug. 20-26.

Dunn is one of 51 speakers and conference leaders from 46 states scheduled to attend the annual conference. More than 1500 American and international college students, graduates, high school seniors and adult leaders of youth are expected to attend.

Mrs. McCarter Active In Community Projects

BY ANN DUNCAN

The creative talent and ability of Mrs. Thomas B. McCarter is displayed in her home at 1819 Fifth Avenue in the intricate designs of the wood carvings she has done. Her handiwork includes a lamp, several mirrors (a full-length one among them), serving trays and platters, a desk, end tables, and even a set of dishes.

Mrs. McCarter began her hobby several years ago when her son, Berry, was ready to go off to school. "I knew that when Berry left, I would have a lot of spare time, so about a year before he went to college, I enrolled in an industrial arts course at West Texas State."

"The first thing I made," she recalled, "was a desk for my husband. He always sat in a chair between two windows and put his papers on the window sills. I made the desk high enough to be even with them, and placed it between them when I had finished the desk. It's been there ever since."

Mrs. McCarter uses a variety of woods for her carvings--walnut, maple, cherry, and holly, one of the hardest woods to be found. "Of course the darker woods are pretty when finished, but the lighter ones show the details of the design better."

Mrs. McCarter was born at Dawson, Texas, in Navarro County to Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berry. "I skipped the fifth grade," she said, "and graduated from high school a year early, but my parents thought I was too young to go to college, so I attended high school another year, studying psychology and the history of education."

"The next year I took exams and entered the junior class at North Texas State Normal School at Denton. The school offered a three year course then, freshman, junior, and senior."

She received a first grade teaching certificate after one year at Denton, and accepted a job as principal of a two-teacher school at Stamford where she taught for two years. After graduating from Denton, she taught geography for two years at Uvalde, and English and history for four years at Yocum.

"I then wanted to study at the University of Chicago, but my parents didn't want me to go where the weather was so cold, so I enrolled instead at the University of Texas and received my B. A. degree there. I was hired as head of the Math Department at the Durant, Okla., High School and began teaching there."

"On September 13, 1920, I was married to Mr. McCarter at my home in Dawson, I had met him while attending school at the University. He was a tutor in my physics lab.

I came to Canyon as a bride, and I thought I had come to the end of the world," she recalled. "There was no paving of any kind, and there was no place to live."

"For two years, we lived in a one-room apartment. There was a tiny kitchenette, but it was built on an enclosed back porch, and we had to go outside to reach it. Then we built our own house, the one we live in now. Of course there are a lot of changes," she added.

Mrs. McCarter taught English at the Demonstration School that was connected with WT, until her son was born, and waited until he was ready for college before resuming teaching duties.

During this time, Mrs. McCarter became very active in clubwork, and was a founding member of several clubs and organizations here in Canyon. She was a member of the Woman's Book Club, and served as president her second year in the club. "Membership in the club was an inspiration to me," she said. "It gave me a chance to read and keep up with current affairs, and also filled the void left when I quit teaching."

She served on the library board for several years, and was a member when they reorganized and made the library a city-county library. "I was also on the committee that drafted the rules and regulations under which the library was to be run. That was in the 30's and those same rules are still used," she said.

Mrs. McCarter was one of the organizers of the American Association of University Women in Canyon. She had been a member of the Amarillo chapter for two years, and several of the women decided to organize a chapter in Canyon. "The first organizational meeting was held in my home," she recalled, "in the middle of one of those black dust storms. That was during the 30's when the Dust Bowl was so bad."

The first meeting each year of the AAUW was held in Mrs. McCarter's home, where it was first begun, until the beginning of the first World War when she resumed teaching.

The Canyon Garden Club was organized with Mrs. McCarter's help. This was also during the 30's when everyone was so concerned with the depression and the dustbowl.

"Mrs. Montford, one of the AAUW members, thought something should be done to beautify the city, especially for the children," she said.

"There were several vacant lots in town," she recalled, "and we decided to beautify them for new parks. One was west of the hospital, one was behind the Ford Motor Company, and another one was on Fourth Avenue near Dr. Cornette's present residence."

"The Garden Club members worked so hard on those lots," she said, "and people called me the War Horse. We cleaned the lots, and then plowed and watered them, and finally planted trees and shrubs and flowers. Other organizations helped on that project, too--the Sue Hite Club and other clubs, the Boy Scouts, and college boys that were in the National Youth Administration."

"Mr. Wooten, who owned the Canyon theatres then, gave show tickets to the Boy Scouts who worked."

Mrs. McCarter is a member of the Methodist Church, and was superintendent of the intermediate department during the years her son was growing up, and later taught the Crusaders Class of young couples. "I have always been a member of the choir," she said. "It's kind of like a hobby for me. I sang in the school choir at Denton and again when I attended school at the university."

Mrs. McCarter also holds membership in the Esther McCrory Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Amarillo. "The ancestor by whom I qualified for membership in the DAR was a brother to Sam Houston," she replied.

Through her teaching affiliation, Mrs. McCarter was made an honorary member of Delta Kappa Gamma Society in Amarillo in 1934.

The beginning of World War II brought a temporary stop to Mrs. McCarter's woodworking hobby as she began taking refresher courses in math and physics at the college.

"About 30 or 40 Army Air Corp and Navy men were being brought in every two weeks," she recalled; "and we just didn't have enough physics teachers to go around."

"My husband was then head of the physics department and he put me in charge of the physics lab where I remained until two years after the war."

For her help in teaching the airmen, Mrs. McCarter was presented a certificate of appreciation from the Commander of the Air Corp, then here in Canyon, Capt. Paul L. Boutz. "I shall always be proud of that certificate and the work I performed to help the war effort," she said.

"I think one of the most satisfying pieces of work I have ever done was during the war when I took the Red Cross nursing course, and worked with the Red Cross in the sewing room and doing other jobs," she said.

Now that her teaching career has ended, Mrs. McCarter has once again returned to her wood carving. "I'm just not happy unless I have something to do," she said.

Mrs. Fronabarger Injured In Fall

Mrs. B. F. Fronabarger a resident of Canyon since 1915, was injured in her home Monday, July 27.

Minier Boy Home From Lions Camp

Sammy Minier, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Minier, returned home last week from the Texas Lions Club Camp for Crippled Children.

Sammy, a Canyon elementary school student, attended the two-week camp held in Kerrville.

He traveled to Kerrville on a special Lions' sponsored bus with other children enrolled at the camp.

Canyon Lions' Club financed the trip and camp for Sammy.

"We check with the schools to see if there are any youngsters who are eligible for the camp. We extend an invitation to the child and his parents and send the name into the camp.

"If there is enough room for the child, we send him down," said Kenneth Waugh, president of the local club.

"We support the camp annually, and then are allowed to send children from our town each summer," Waugh explained.

"The Lions camp gives crippled children an opportunity to attend a camp during the summer," Waugh continued.

Burial followed in Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

She had lived in Canyon since 1919 when she moved here from Dresden, Tennessee.

She was born in Dresden in August, 1893, and married Guy Harp in December of 1924 in Clovis, New Mexico.

Mrs. Harp was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Harp's husband was postmaster in Canyon from 1935 to 1957. He retired in February of 1957, and he and his wife lived at 1805 Fifth Avenue.

Postal employees served as honorary pallbearers at the funeral services.

Canyon Jaycees Sponsor Many Community Projects

BY ANN LANDER

Everything from building interest in the library to sponsoring a domino tournament.

The Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce might not be the largest men's organization in town, but it's not the least bit noticeable from their lists of activities.

"We're a young men's organization," said Richard Pruett, Jaycee president. "All of our members are from the ages of 21 to 35. We realize that since our members are young, they're willing to work and want to be active in community projects."

"If we didn't have a lot of projects we probably wouldn't have a club," said Pruett.

During the 75th Anniversary celebration the Jaycees were always evident slyly moving around the town carefully searching out people without either beards or shaving permits.

There was no hiding from the group, the culprits were always caught and given a dunking for their laxity.

The Jaycees also handled the cooking of the barbecue for the free barbecue dinner the last day of the celebration.

Jaycees set up their pits for the barbecue north of the square at the city barn. The cooking started at sun-up Friday morning, July 31, and from then on Jaycees were permanent fixtures around the pits.

"The meat had to be turned every hour," said Pruett, "which was a process requiring about 12 Jaycees, six to turn the meat, four to sop it with barbecue sauce and two to hold the tarp."

"We had to have someone at the pits all the time, to make sure the fires were kept going and to make sure we didn't have any unexpected fires."

Sixteen beeves were slaughtered for the feast. Doug Rittenberry and Bob Wilkinson both Jaycees donated some of the beeves for the celebration.

Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes also helped in the serving line at the barbecue.

"Jaycees have only been in Canyon for seven or eight years," said Pruett, "so most of our projects are small, but the projects are getting bigger all the time."

"The next project we'll be working on will be in starting a bigger Friends of the Library Club. What we are going to try to do is get people who are interested in improving our City-County Library organized into a group that will work for the project."

Another project for the Jaycees skill in the planning stage, is a city-wide survey.

"We will probably start the survey in October or November," said Pruett. "It will be a door to door canvassing of the city to find out what the people want and think. It will benefit not only the Jaycees, in what projects we should be sponsoring, but also will benefit the entire community."

The Jaycees also have two money making projects to support the organization itself. These are their flag project and annual radio day.

"Flag days are really our biggest money making projects. We have the merchants sign a contract for a year that we will put flags out in front of their stores on certain days," said Pruett. "This year the flags will be put out nine times."

"If it rains on one of the days we're supposed to put them out then we usually substitute another day."

"The first year the merchant signs a contract the price is $12, and we buy the flag, drill the hole and set the pipe, and from then on it's only $10," said Pruett.

Jaycee-ettes are active in many of the Jaycee projects. This group, made up of Jaycee wives, was organized primarily to aid the local Jaycees with their projects. The women's group has given a helping hand on most of the projects undertaken by the Jaycees since their founding in 1957.

A pre-requisite to club membership is that the prospective member's husband must be a member of the Jaycees.

The club meets bi-monthly throughout the year with social meetings held once a month in the summer.

The office of president of the two groups is now a family project with Richard Pruett as president of the Jaycees and Mrs. Pruett as president of the Jaycee-ettes.

"Too many people think you have to be invited to be a Jaycee," said Pruett. "This isn't so at all. Anyone can be a member. All they have to do is contact a Jaycee and come to one of the meetings - and of course be willing to work."

"The Junior Chamber of Commerce was designed as a training ground for community leadership. It prepares young men for the greater responsibilities they will hold later on."

Membership in the civic-minded organization is active only until the age of 35. After reaching this age the member then becomes an associate member, that is if he wants to remain active in the activities of the group.

"The only difference in an associate member and an active membership," said Pruett, "is that the associate has no vote. This way we keep a fresh new view point and new ideas."

Some of the other projects sponsored by the Jaycees are scholarships given to Canyon High School seniors going to WT, a poll tax booth, a quarterhorse show, contributions to Little League and Babe Ruth League teams, and even a Labor Day rest stop.

Being a Jaycee takes some time and energy but more than this it takes an interest in the community and a desire to see it grow. It also takes a willingness to handle a lot of the jobs that are necessary but that no one is else willing to do.

Even from their beginning the Jaycees have been one of the most active civic groups in the city. They've spent time, energy and money to see that the city of Canyon has the things it needs.

Thomson-Hicks Wed At J.A.Hill Chapel

In an early morning ceremony August 1, Miss Patricia Alice Thomson and Gary William Hicks were united in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomson of Muleshoe. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hicks of Canyon.

The Rev. Newton Starnes, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Canyon, officiated at the double ring ceremony, performed at Joseph A. Hill Chapel on the University campus.

Traditional nuptial selections were presented by Miss Nancy Davis of Canyon and Mrs. Farrell Dovenport of Amarillo, accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, organist.

The altar, flanked by tall palms, was centered with a crescent bouquet in the bride's chosen colors of champagne, gold and white arranged around a golden cross. Long white tapers in crystal candelabra completed the arrangement.

Mrs. Kaye Long of Lubbock served her sister as matron of honor. She was dressed in a champagne colored A-line dress accented with deep pleats and self-bows with a matching morning coat. Her corsage was of frenched champagne carnations.

Wedding guests were registered by Mrs. Jon Ann Dwyer of McLean, sister of the bride. Misses Carla Jo and Mary Ann Dwyer, nieces of the bride, were candlelighters.

Thom Hicks, brother of the groom, was best man. Assuming ushering duties were Sam Brillhart and John L. Mann, both of Canyon.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street-length dress of white nylon organdy over cotton satin and lace with a portrait neckline and cap sleeves. Appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace accented with seed pearls trimmed the bodice and full skirt. The bride's only jewelry was a diamond pendant, a gift from the groom. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a cluster of satin roses and lace petals accented with seed pearls and was designed and made for her by Sue Hicks, sister of the groom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Methodist Student Center. Miss Sue Hicks, sister of the groom and Mrs. Carl Dwyer, sister of the bride, served punch and cake from a table laid with a beige lace tablecloth, centered with a bouquet of champagne carnations and white tapers in crystal candleholders.

For a wedding trip to Taos, Red River, and other points in New Mexico, the bride wore a three piece suit of white linen accented with champagne and white accessories.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Muleshoe High School, and received her B.A. degree from West Texas State University in May of 1964. She is a member of Alpha Chi, national honor fraternity; Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity; and has been listed on the Dean's Honor Roll. The altar area was decorated with arrangments of white gladioli and greenery, with white satin bows. Small palms were placed behind the altar rail and flanked with circular candelabra holding white tapers. The pews were marked with white satin bows and streamers.

The bride's only attendant was Phyllis Ann Gerdsen of Canyon. She wore a two-piece ensemble of pink silk with hand sewn beaded trim. Her hat and shoes were of matching material and she carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations tied with white ribbons. Candles were lit by Susan Steele, a cousin of the bride from Tulsa, Oklahoma. Tiny covered buttons fastened the long pointed sleeves at the wrist, and complemented the back of the bodice. A pillbox hat of lace held her short veil of bridal illusion. Her only jewelry was an heirloom diamond pendant. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias arranged in a Hogarth curve with a borrowed lace handkerchief worked into the design.

Following a reception in the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for a wedding trip to Colorado. For travel the bride wore a beige silk suit with white accessories and a corsage lifted from her wedding bouquet.

Narcotic Charge Is Filed Here

An Indonesian man was charged with possession of narcotic drugs, a felony, here this week.

Officers identified the man as Henry Charles Aubert, 33 years old. Police said the man told them he is a native of Indonesia.

Aubert is charged specifically with possession of codeine and methadon. He was arrested by Amarillo police. Amarillo Police Capt. Paul Nicholson quoted Aubert as having said he obtained the drugs as samples.

Officers said the man in the past had worked as a male nurse.

Aubert was arraigned Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Bill Wilson and bond was set at $5,000.

Aubert also was assessed a fine of $250 and a 30-day jail sentence in county court on a charge of possession of lewd photographs.

discussed.

"The yellow reflectors located at underpasses within the city limits, are knocked out, regularly. Looks like someone takes a hammer or a bottle and just pounds out the glass. We don't have so much trouble with them on the highways, but in town the reflectors are always knocked out," Morgan pointed out.

"There is no one particular place that is bad in town. I have noticed a lot of damage near the underpass on 11th Street," he continued.

Another prize for sign-snatchers seems to be the Canyon city limits signs, posted on each side of the city.

"We have a lot of city limit signs stolen. One time I remember we found a Memphis city limits sign put up east of town on Highway 217.

"Guess ours was in Memphis," Morgan said laughingly.

But to city and county law enforcement officers changing of signs can be dangerous.

Drivers depend on signs for directions and safety advice, and are often confused when faced with a sign which reads 80 miles an hour inside the city limits.

"The defacing of signs within the city limits does not cause a lot of trouble. Most drivers take for granted that the speed limit inside the city is 30 miles an hour," L. D. Caldwell, chief of police, said.

"It would be dangerous if the stop signs and yield right-of-way signs were stolen, but I can't remember having much trouble with that," Caldwell exclaimed.

"Have had several signs damaged. Looks like they have hit the post with a car, or something, but I don't remember having any of them taken away. Most of the signs, if hit, are left there.

"Some have tried to take the signs off the posts, but usually can't get them off. They get a bolt loose, but then can't get if off the rest of the way," Caldwell continued.

So the main problems of replacing damaged and defaced signs remain for highway department workers. Their job of checking city limit signs, road markers and reflectors continues, as costs for replacing the damaged signs continue to climb.

last year," Webb said.

Webb will be assisted this fall by Ronald Adams, line coach, and Roy Kieval and Royce Elam, both B-team coaches.

Karen Malvahn spent last week at Ceta Glen Camp attending a camp for Lutheran children. On Friday, she was joined by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ray Malvahn and sister, Janet, who attended a Lutheran Layman's League Family Retreat.

Girl Scouting Program Grows In Canyon Area

"The purpose of the Girl Scouting program is to teach girls to take care of themselves in any situation," said Mrs. Charles Nester, chairman of the neighborhood service team.

Although the Girl Scout organization is active in Canyon with more than 200 girls as members, little is known or said about the program.

According to Mrs. Nester this lack of interest is partially due to the fact that the Canyon troops are not affiliated with the national organization, and is therefore known as a "lone troop".

"In order to be a member of the national organization," said Mrs. Nester, "we must have a paid worker, with a salary of about $300 a month. Right now we're trying to get a building for the girls and our budget won't stand both."

The building program was started about five years ago, but has run into much difficulty along the way.

"The main problem, as with every building project," Mrs. Nester pointed out, "has been with funds.

"The only real fund raising project the Girl Scouts have is the annual cookie sale and part of the money raised from that has to go for operating expenses. However, many of the civic clubs and other organizations have been most helpful and have shown quite a bit of interest in the project.

"We just recently sold our second building, and it will be moved soon. This gives us two lots in the 1600 block of Third Avenue for our building."

Although Canyon is not a member, the 14 troops here follow the program written and recommended by the National Organization.

"There's a new program of division that will go into effect this year," said Mrs. Nester. "Brownies instead of being a three year program will now be just two years, second and third grades.

"Children this age are really too young to do too much except crafts, and this sort of thing, and during the third year many of them lose interest."

The rest of the program is the same with Junior Girl Scouts fourth, fifth and sixth grades, Cadet Girl Scouts, seventh, eighth and ninth grades and Senior Scouts, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades.

"The Girl Scouting program takes into consideration that every girl is different and has different interests," said Mrs. Nester. "Therefore the girls are only required to learn the basic laws, and the Promise.

"From then on the girl can advance through her own fields of interest. Some of these are music, sewing, cooking, drama, the out of doors and many more. This way the girl isn't forced into something she really has no interest in.

"The girls are also taught to earn their own way.

"If one of the troops wants to take a trip, then they arrange some kind of money making project, such as washing cars or babysitting.

"Even Brownies are supposed to earn their weekly dues of 10 cents. However, this is usually a mother-daughter sort of arrangement. It doesn't take too many errands to earn their dues.

Mrs. Nester pointed out that finding women willing to act as leaders for the various troops is often quite difficult if not impossible.

"Girl Scout troops leaders have a definite purpose," said Mrs. Nester, "but, that purpose is to advise and not to do all the planning. That's the girls' job. They must plan and execute all their own projects.

The Girl Scout program is rapidly growing in Canyon.

"When I entered the scouting program ten years ago," said Mrs. Nester, "the sixth grade was as high as the program went. Now we go clear through Senior Scouts and have for the past two years.

"We feel that the girl scouting program is really going to boom in Canyon and that when the fall meetings start we should have about 260 or 275 members in our troops."

Homemaking Teachers Conference Is Held

Mrs. Clara Long attended the statewide in-service workshop in San Antonio Aug. 3-7, along with homemaking teachers from throughout Texas.

The theme of the workshop was "A Forward Look Into The Vocational Purpose of Homemaking Education."

While at the conference, Mrs. Long heard programs on "The Changing Role of Women Today", by Mrs. Rhobia Taylor, the regional director of Women's Division of the U. S. Department of Labor in Dallas, and "Women's Work in Her Varied Worlds", given by Dr. Bernice Moore, assistant director of Philanthropy in the Southwest, Hogg Foundation, Austin.

Dr. Bernice Moore also moderated a panel on the "Implications for Homemaking Education."

Others presenting talks were Laura M. Ehman, assistant state supervisor for Home Economics Education, Albany, N.Y., on "A Functional Approach to Concepts and Generalization," and Mrs. Florence Low, Assistant Director for Home Economics Education, Albany, Economics of the Extension Service at Texas A & M.

Mrs. Long served on an Area I planning committee on Tuesday night in which the Area I homemaking teachers workshop and the Area I FHA meeting were planned.

Nancy Hicks, state FHA president from Canyon, presented the afternoon program on August 6. She brought highlights from the National FHA Convention to the 1000 teachers attending, then presenting a challenge to these teachers to bring their teaching to meet the demands and needs of the age in which we live.

Nancy emceed a panel of state FHA officers on "Dropouts in Our Schools"--the why and suggestions on how these young people could be kept in school. The ideas for the panel came from the Governors Workshop in Austin on Citizenship for Tomorrow.

The state Young Homemakers President from Hale Center spoke to the group on "Stepping Along the Stones to Progress".

Mrs. Long was present for the Vocational Homemaking Teachers Association of Texas Directors meeting held at the Granada Hotel in San Antonio. Plans were furthered to meet the needs and interests of this growing organization of 600 members. At the Area I meeting, Mrs. Long served as hostess for the 74 teachers present. She was elected to a two-year term on the Board of Directors of the Vocational Homemaking Teachers Association of Texas.

Miss Hicks is attending the Farm Bureau Citizenship Workshop in Huntsville August 11-14. Following the workshop, she will travel to Austin to the annual state Executive Future Homemakers of America meeting to make final plans for the State FHA meeting to be held next April. Mrs. Long is making the trip as sponsor and both plan to return to Canyon August 21.

Pioneer Cook Once "Didn't Know Nothin"

BY PHYLLIS BONNIE

Mrs. L. A. Pierce, pioneer resident of our area, gives our readers a look into the past this week, along with her recipe for Pecan Pie.

Born at Mason Hall, Tennessee, on July 14, 1878, Mrs. Pierce moved to our area in 1900. She was married in her home, and she and her husband left the same afternoon for Texas. Three days later, they were met in Amarillo by Mr. Pierce's stepbrother.

They spent the night in Amarillo, and the next day, as Mrs. Pierce relates, they went shopping.

"We bought big, tall bedsteads and a rocker, and piled it all on top of a load of coal, then headed for the ranch.

"It was late afternoon when we got to the ranch, (30 miles from Amarillo) and my husband lived in a dugout. That dugout had become the place for all the cowboys to hang out and were they ever surprised when we arrived. They weren't expecting a woman, so they all took out for the bunkhouse and put on clean shirts."

An unforeseen problem arose when supper time arrived. Mrs. Pierce had been used to cooking with a woodburning stove in Tennessee and the bachelor stove, which her husband owned, burned coal. The problem was temporarily ended when one of the cowboys was persuaded to cook supper, and the next morning, John Cage, a neighbor boy, fixed breakfast. This however, did not prevent his going home and telling his mother, "the ranchman has married, but he sure made a mistake, 'cause his wife doesn't know nothin'."

Another aspect of ranch life is revealed when Mrs. Pierce talks about celebrating Christmas. "We had our Christmas trees in Womble schoolhouse, about three miles from the ranch, along with our neighbors, the Birnams, Cages, Hoffmans, and Hitchcocks. Those were the days of the "blue northers," and if one was seen coming, there was still time to get home before it hit." The schoolhouse was also used for church, and union services were held there until 1903.

In 1901, the first horse-powered thresher came to the ranch, and Mrs. Pierce was preparing dinner for the men. A rain came up, and the wheat on the Pierce ranch became too wet to cut. The men came in and told Mrs. Pierce this, and that they were going to Birnam's to cut wheat. She piled all the food on to a hay frame and headed for Birnam's, but by the time she arrived there, the thresher had finished with that wheat and the men came in to tell Mrs. Birnam that they weren't going to eat there either, but over at the Cage ranch.

Mrs. Pierce says simply, "Mrs. Birnam and I piled all the food onto the hay frame again and headed for Cage's. There we finally got them all fed."

The Pierces had five children, one of whom died. Their first child, now Mrs. Ed LeGenre of Glendale, Arizona, was born in 1901. Lexy was born in 1903, Felix in 1905 and Judge in 1910. Sometime between 1908 and 1910, the Pierces moved to Canyon so the children could attend school.

In 1950, the Pierce's celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mr. Pierce had been in ill health for several years and in 1951, he died.

Mrs. Pierce spoke of her thoughts on life today when she said, "We didn't have anything but each other back then, but somehow that was all we needed. Today there is no time to do anything, and no one thinks of the other fellow much."

When the Pierce family first moved to Canyon they lived on Evelyn Street, one block west of the junior high. "Fifth Avenue was then the only street open from one end of town to the other, and putting the schoolhouse in the middle of the street surely did mess it up."

For many years, Mrs. Pierce was a member of the Pioneer Club, and the Mother-In-Law Club. She has been a member of the First Methodist Church for as long as she can remember.

Residents of Canyon are acquainted with Mrs. Pierce, not only as a fine cook, but as a seamstress. She mentions that she loved to cook, and used her "Home Comfort Stove" a lot.

The recipe for Pecan Pie which she gives the readers this week will make an excellent addition to a summer meal.

PECAN PIE
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
2 Tablespoons flour
1 cup white Karo
2 Tablespoons butter
1/2 cup pecan meats chopped
few drops vanilla

Combine ingredients and pour into an unbaked shell. Bake in a moderate oven (350) until set. Cook this slowly or it will boil over and not set properly.

In 1944-45 Mrs. Sligar was on leave from WTSU for Civil Service work in Washington, working as a civilian personnel assistant at Fort Belvoir.

Since 1950, Mrs. Sligar has been director of the human development education program in the education department. From 1950-54 she directed a field program in human development, acting as a consultant for in-service groups of teachers throughout the Panhandle.

New Coach Leads Happy Cowboys In '64 Season

Happy Cowboys take to the corral next week with a new coach and a look to the coming season.

The Cowboys, who had a 3-7 season last fall, will face the same competition this year, but with more experienced boys.

Eight Cowboys are returning to the squad under the coaching leadership of Ricky Mantooth, new head coach.

Mantooth will be assisted by Bill Tennison and Max Kennedy, line coach.

Tennison is head basketball coach. Kennedy will assist coaching football, basketball and track.

"We have young boys, most of them are sophomores and juniors. But we do have a strong looking group returning," Mantooth said.

The eight starters returning from the '63 season include Jim McManigal, fullback; Joe Johnson, halfback; Lance Cox, tackle; Gary Via, guard; Larry Stevens, center; Johnny Zachry guard; James Haley, tackle; Tom Moudy, halfback; Gary Culp, quarterback and Randy Johnson, quarterback.

Fall workouts begin at Happy High School August 17. Practices will be held twice a day Monday through Saturdays Aug. 17-28.

Happy begins the season against the Turkey Turks in Turkey, Sept. 11. Lefors will host the Cowboys Sept. 18 and Happy will be host Sept. 25 when Silverton enters Cowboy Corral.

Oct. 2 Happy will greet Kress in the final non-conference game.

Lazbuddie will travel to Happy Oct. 9 in the first district bout. Happy will play six district games, as compared to the usual four district games.

Oct. 16 Bovina will play in Happy and Oct. 23 the Cowboys journey to Vega. Texline will be in Happy Oct. 30 and Hart will host the Cowboys Nov. 13.

The final game of the regular season will be Nov. 20 at Nazareth.

In last year's games, Happy beat Lazbuddie 45-14, Turkey, 13-0 and Kress, 14-8.

Cowboy losses were to Boys Ranch, 30-14; Bovina, 18-14; Vega, 18-13; Silverton, 34-0; Claude, 14-7; Friona, 40-14, and Hart, 12-0.

Claude and Friona are not on the 1964 schedule for the Cowboys.

Mantooth came to Happy from Rankin where he served for three years as assistant football coach and head track coach.

He coached in the Dalhart Junior High School before moving to Rankin.

Mantooth graduated from McLean High School and attended Oklahoma State University. He is a graduate of West Texas State University.

Richardson Shines In Chicago Tussle

Jerry Richardson thrilled football fans Friday night during the College All-Stars-Chicago Bears game in Chicago.

Richardson, 1964 graduate of West Texas State University, was key man in several defensive plays against the Bears, who won the game 28-17.

Richardson, star halfback for the Buffs three years while at WT, played right back the entire game Friday.

In an Associated Press story last weekend, Jerry "never let a receiver get by him. The few passes the Bears completed in his zone were in front of him."

The article continued by explaining an interception made by Richardson.

"Early in the game, Richardson turned the Bears back when they seemed headed for certain touchdown. Bill Wade (Bears) went back to pass and Richardson came out of his zone and intercepted in the end zone," the article read.

John Sauer, defensive coach for the All-Stars was quoted as saying, "It was typical of his play. I said earlier during our practice sessions that he can charge the ball and change directions easily and he proved it tonight."

The AP article also quoted Sauer as saying, "Certainly everyone had to notice the way he gets a jump on the ball and closes the gap between himself and the would be receiver.

" 'He's going to make some pro team a fine defensive back,' Sauer added."

Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Richardson of Umbarger, has been drafted by the Los Angeles Rams.

" 'He learned a lot about defense with us and he has a lot more to learn naturally,' said Sauer. 'But that shouldn't be any trouble for him. He takes to coaching well. He has the speed, the good hands and he's not afraid to hit hard. There's not much more I can say about any player.' " the AP source said.
